Says Town Got Milk From Diseased Herds

Former Inspector Gets $50 Compensation For Short Notice

Following the complaint of Archie Mair at the previous meeting that he had been unfairly dismissed as milk inspector, Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., and Mr. Mair were invited to attend the town council meeting Monday evening.

Mr. Mair said at the first meeting that he had been dismissed without proper notice, and on the ground that he was otherwise employed in the day time. He said that he could get away from his work at any time if necessary. He said that the real reason he had been dismissed was because he had refused to comply with instructions of the M.O.H. not to permit a certain producer, with whose milk he could find no fault, to ship milk into town.

On Monday evening Dr. Wesley made a full statement but declined to remain to hear Mr. Mair.

"No controversy," said Dr. Wesley.

"I thoroughly agree with all the remarks of Dr. Wesley," said J. R. Y. Broughton, chairman of the board of health. "I had it thrown up to me that it was a personal grievance. There is nothing to it. When we received reports written up in the dark, I thought there was something wrong."

"The letter from Dr. Wesley said that it was not on account of any inefficiency, but because I was engaged full-time," said Mr. Mair. "Now it is because of inefficiency. It is easy for another man to go out and find faults. If I wanted anything done, I asked for it and the farmers usually did it. If there is so much wrong, why is the bacteria count so low?"

"He talks as if I knew nothing of disease of cattle. I took a course at the Agricultural College and I had a life experience in a dairy. He wanted me to close off a producer for nothing."

"I think it is very wrong for us to entertain criticism of the head of a department," said Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales. "The M.O.H. might be wrong but there is friction. It can't go on. The matter is settled."

"I'm here for justice," said Mr. Mair.

"Unfortunately, I had to disagree with the rest of the board in the first move to replace Mr. Mair, for the reason that Mr. Hunter, an inexperienced man, was suggested," said Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd.

"Wasn't part of the idea to get the work done cheaper?" asked Dr. Dales.

"When they suggested Mr. Lockhart, I said that was more suitable," said Dr. Boyd. "At the same time, I pointed out, from a humane point of view, that Mr. Mair had a family and needed the money."

Mr. Mair told the council that he would "have to go further," but, on the advice of Dr. Boyd and Dr. Dales, agreed to accept monetary compensation for short notice.

The council voted him $50.

Veterinary Surgeon Better Qualified, Says M.O.H.

"The question was asked at last council meeting, 'Why change to a vet?'" said Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., at the town council meeting Monday evening. "This brings up another question that has been frequently asked: 'Why was not Dr. Lockhart appointed milk inspector at the time Archie Mair was?'"

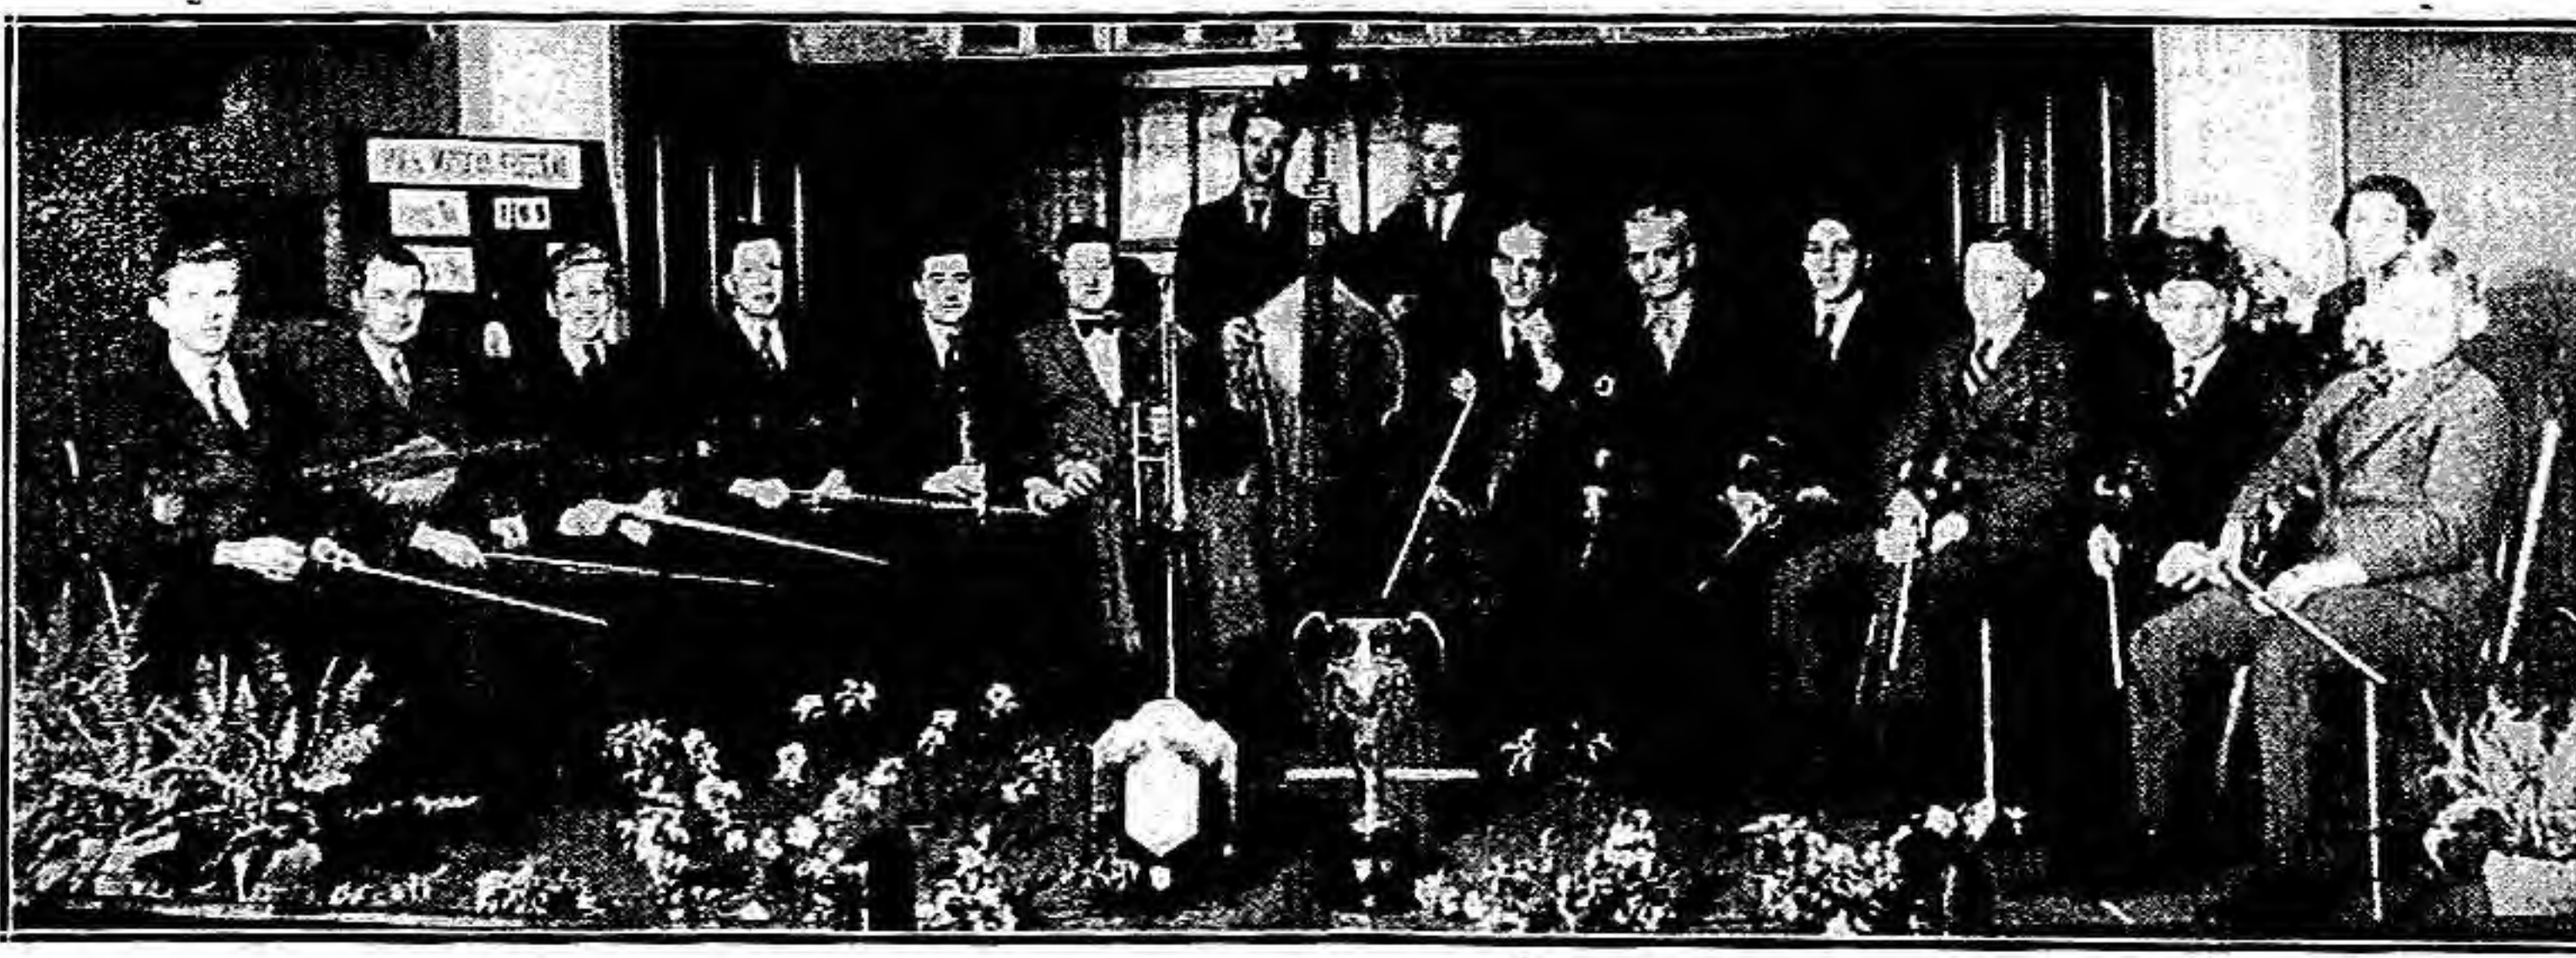

"All authorities on sanitary engineering say that the best qualified man in the municipality for milk inspector is the local veterinarian, and that he is the one usually appointed. Therefore, I first interviewed Dr. Lockhart about his taking over the work. The doctor was then a young, conscientious man, and did not have the experience or the confidence of the public he now has. The first and only question I asked him was: 'Dr. Lockhart, if you are the farmer's veterinarian, would you, in case you were the town milk inspector, be likely to favor the farmer?' And he replied, he did not know but he was afraid he might. This conscientious answer from a straightforward young veterinarian was the deciding factor in giving the appointment to Archie Mair."

"Dr. Lockhart's experience in testing the farmers' cattle for tuberculosis and contagious abortion places him in a position to know all the diseased cattle of the district. He is also appointed by the federal government examiner for tuberculosis and contagious abortion among the farmers' herds. He is the farmer's veterinarian and is appreciated by the public as the most skillful, up-to-date veterinary surgeon in these parts, and as such he is in touch with all the cattle of the farmers supplying milk to the different dairies in town. He will not likely allow any farmer to ship milk from a diseased herd."

"Milk from cows affected with tuberculosis, contagious abortion or mastitis should not be dumped into the farmer's milk can, neither should it be thrown in to the pigs without being previously boiled. In a limited experience as a farmer, I can well remember doing a post mortem on one of a big litter of young pigs that were dying one after another, and found that they showed unmistakable signs of tuberculosis. No doubt the mother had been fed the milk from tubercular cows and she in turn gave the disease to her little ones. Diseased milk not only contains the germs of tuberculosis and contagious abortion which we have all heard so much about, but in the case of another, under mastitis, or inflamed udder, her milk contains the most deadly germs, such as streptococcus, staphylococcus and coliform bacilli."

"If this milk is properly boiled or pasteurized, it does the family no particular harm in using it for food, but what about a slip in the pasteurizer and if the work is not carefully done? Health authorities are under the impression that it is not only contains the germs of tuberculosis and contagious abortion which we have all heard so much about, but in the case of another, under mastitis, or inflamed udder, her milk contains the most deadly germs, such as streptococcus, staphylococcus and coliform bacilli."

"The council voted him $50."

$25,000 Overhaul Of Electric Plant Delayed

Mayor Not Anxious To Proceed With Spending Plans

Proposed re-building of the local electric plant received a setback at the town council meeting Monday evening.

Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd called upon Councillor W. W. Osborne, chairman of the water and light committee, to bring in a resolution inviting the Ontario Hydro-Electric to send engineers here to make a survey.

"We have confidence in Mr. Rachar, and I feel that we should let Mr. Rachar go ahead with his plans," said Mr. Osborne. "I am willing, and Mr. Rachar is willing, to have an independent engineer come in and go over his plans, but not the Hydro."

"We have seven years to go, and I don't think that we should get tangled up with the Hydro. The Hydro charged Aurora $300, and they will charge us at least $600."

"I think it is a good idea not to have the Hydro," said Deputy Reeve Joseph Vale. "But we wanted the Hydro to approve Mr. Rachar's plans, and they wouldn't do it. They wanted to come here and make plans of their own. But in getting on Page four, column four

NEWMARKET WINS EXHIBITION GAME

Newmarket Redmen, encouraged by a barrage of hits in the first inning, went on to win the opening exhibition softball game with Pickering College by 15-10 on Friday evening of last week at Pickering's home diamond.

The Redmen opened up strong offensively in the first inning, scoring seven runs to give them a comfortable lead to work on. The Pickering softballers put up a good game and made the Reds work hard to pull out with a win.

The return game will be played at the Stuart Scott school grounds on Friday night, commencing at 7 o'clock. Pickering will be out for revenge and a good game is assured.

M. O. H.'S SALARY INCREASED TO $300

The salary of Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., was increased from $200 to $300, by the town council on Monday evening.

N. L. Mathews, K. C., clerk and solicitor, brought to the attention of the council a recommendation of the board of health that the salary of the M.O.H. be increased to $300. "It was $150 and was increased last year to $200," said Mr. Mathews.

"Last year Dr. Williams of Aurora (M.O.H. for Whitechurch) asked for an increase," stated Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd. "He took it to court and got it. It is a difficult job. You make bad friends, and injure your private business."

"If it were taken to court, Dr. Wesley would get it, perhaps more," said Mr. Mathews.

DANCE IN CHURCH NOT MENTIONED

Heavily publicized as the preacher who advocated dancing in the church, Rev. Gordon Dunn, Bathurst St. United church, Toronto, failed to say anything sensational at the semi-annual meeting of the United church women's association of Toronto centre presbytery. The meeting was held in Trinity United.

"A statesman recently said that the British Empire spends a million pounds a day for armaments, except on Sunday, when they stop to pray for peace," said Mr. Dunn. "It is time for each nation to ask the question: Is it I who is responsible for this war in China?"

Mrs. George Russell welcomed the visitors. Mrs. Morley Andrews, Aurora, was among the leaders of the discussions. Miss Jean Hunter sang a solo, "Hallelujahs played."

The Trinity Women's Association served nearly 300 guests at noon.

FARMER GETS $400 DAMAGES FOR SEIZURE

Defendant Given Counter-claim For Rent And Taxes

Taking action for an alleged wrongful seizure of his farm stock and implements, Alan Crocker, East Gwillimbury township farmer, was given judgment for $400 and costs by Judge Barton in county court last Friday.

The court also gave judgment in favor of the defendant, Ernest M. Pollock, Sutton, for $222 for rent, taxes, etc., on a counter-claim. The other defendant was Thomas Ardill, Sutton, the bailiff who made the seizure.

According to evidence given, Mr. Crocker was operating on shares a North Gwillimbury farm belonging to Joseph Pollock, father of Ernest Pollock. About a year ago Mr. Pollock served notice on the plaintiff to vacate the farm May 1, 1938. Mr. Crocker rented another farm, in East Gwillimbury, last summer and moved to it in January of this year.

The two parties were unable to agree as to the amount owing Mr. Pollock from Mr. Crocker and Mr. Pollock had Mr. Ardill make a seizure on the East Gwillimbury farm, and then advertised a farm sale.

The day before the sale, N. L. Mathews, K.C., solicitor for Mr. Crocker, having first warned Mr. Pollock, obtained an injunction stopping the sale. The damages awarded were for injury to Mr. Crocker's reputation caused through advertising the sale, Hollis E. Beckett, Toronto, acted for the defendants.

Huron St. To Be Paved To Avoid Newmarket

Old Parking By-Law Was Dropped When Merchants Protested

The town council proposes to give a Main St. parking by-law another trial, in the interests of the shopping public and of the stores. Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales stated at the town council meeting on Monday evening that the county proposed to pave Huron St. "because they can't get through your town."

Mayor Dr. S. J. Boyd started the discussion by asking for a one-hour parking law on Timothy St. for the convenience of the buses.

"The parking on our Main St. is getting to be a by-word," said Dr. Dales.

"Our citizens should, to be patriotic, submit themselves to some sort of regulation. Half of the cars parked on Main St. are local cars. Visitors can't get near the stores. They go on to Aurora or to Bradford to shop."

"Some people just sit there to see the sights," said Dr. Dales.

WOULD TREAT WATER FOR SUMMER TASTE

The town's drinking water is usually worse at the beginning of the summer season, Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., advised the town council on Monday evening, suggesting that he should take up with Dr. Berry of the provincial department of health the question of treating the water at the filtration plant with sodium silicate. The council took no action.

"We have a parking by-law, but the merchants came up and opposed it," said N. L. Mathews, K.C., clerk and solicitor.

Mr. Mathews thought this by-law provided for half-hour parking. The council acquiesced in Dr. Dales' request that a one-hour parking by-law be brought in. This would affect Main St. from Water to Millard.

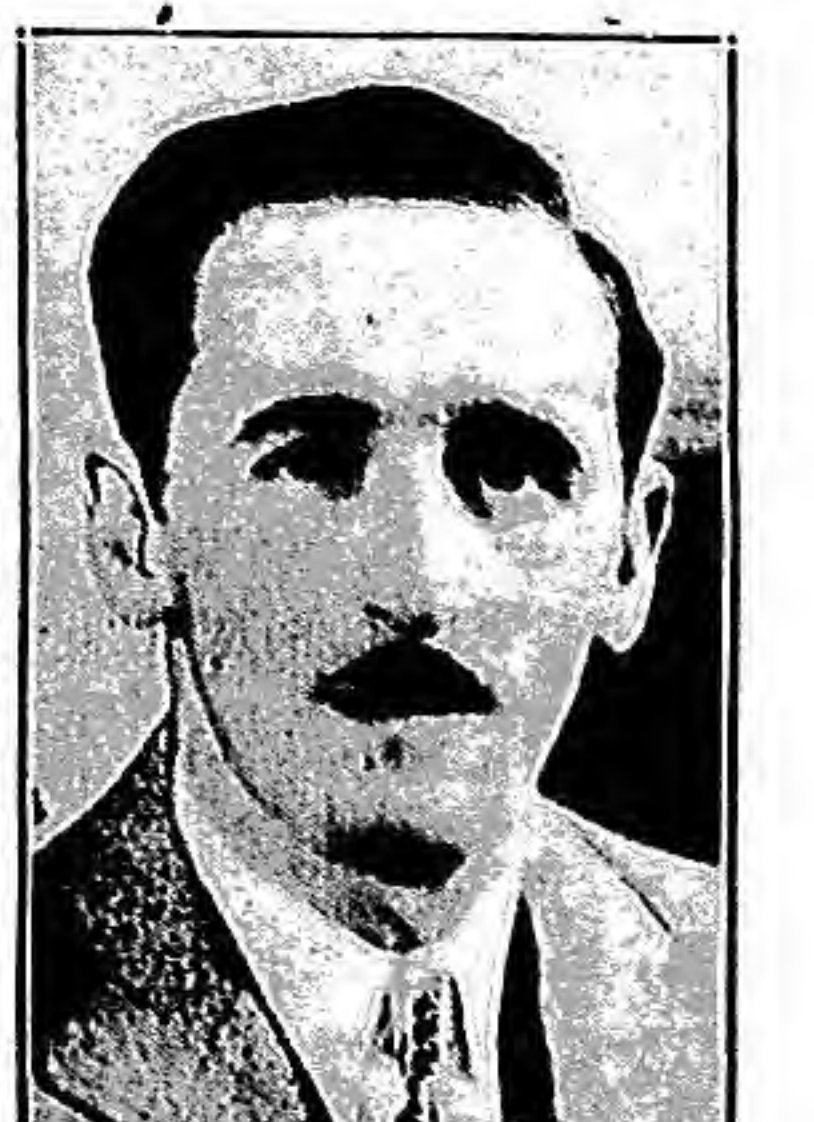

"We have a police court here now," added Dr. Dales.

Too Drunk To Drive, But No Drunk-Drive Conviction

Convicted On Other Charges And License Cancelled

A total of 50 cases were heard before Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe at the local police court on Tuesday. Of these 14 cases were adjourned for two weeks, or dismissed.

Facing four charges, Gordon J. Maybee, Toronto, was sentenced to 14 days in jail on a charge of failing to remain at the scene of an accident, and was also fined $25 with costs or an additional 30 days.

A charge of driving while under the influence of liquor was dismissed by the magistrate. On the charges of reckless driving, and driving without an operator's license, the accused was remanded for sentence. The magistrate recommended that the accused be not granted an operator's license for six months.

The driver of the other car, William Horsely, was the first witness called and he testified on the drunk driving charge. "I was driving my car on the

ANDREW OLDING HEBB,
Editor and Proprietor
142 Main St., Newmarket

THURSDAY, MAY 19TH, 1938

MAIN ST.

Newmarket's most pressing problem, we thought until recently, was Main St. traffic congestion. Now it seems that the electric light plant, although not apparently so to the layman, is the greatest problem. And the town is going the right way to solve this problem, that is, by study, consultation and consideration. If the town is going to be up against a huge expenditure in 1945, when Newmarket becomes a Hydro municipality, now is the time to begin to face the music and perhaps incidentally save citizens a lot of money. Whether it is better to act now, or to await the worst, or to pursue some intermediate course, is being studied by members of the finance and light committees.

Traffic Congestion

Main St. congestion is a similar problem, although it doesn't seem to have won the attention we think it really deserves. Driving up or down Newmarket's Main St. on a Saturday is as slow and tortuous as driving along King St., Toronto, between Bay and Yonge Sts. at noon on a business day, although we would regard the King St. drive as safer and easier on the nerves. Fenders are forever being scraped, traffic is delayed and Newmarket's customers are inconvenienced.

Worthy of Thought

The traffic congestion problem is similar to the light problem because it will become more acute as time goes on. By 1945 Newmarket's Main St. will be sorely inadequate, unless changes are made. There are possibilities, of course, that a provincial highway along Huron St., if it materializes, might attract business that way and develop Huron St. as a second main street, but the logical thing is to take steps which will make the present Main St. adequate in 25 years. The council could set new building lines on both sides of Main St. in front of which no new buildings or new fronts could be erected. Every building on Main St., even today's most elaborate, will be replaced some day. Such action would enhance Main St. values. Property-owners should readily agree to deed to the town the additional land, as the street line is gradually moved back.

Saving Future Grief

A course that would bring some immediate relief would be to widen the street from the post office north over the top of the hill. Buildings in this section are already far enough back to permit a considerable widening of the street. In any event, this Main St. problem deserves the same study and consideration that the electric light problem is receiving. The town would be well repaid if it were to seek professional advice from a town planning engineer.

Letting The Council Out

In fairness to the council, we should say that we do not believe that the primary responsibility for arousing interest in this problem and finding a solution for it rests with the council. The general public suffers as a result of Main St. narrowness, but the principal sufferers are the business men and property-owners on Main St. A problem like this could properly be studied by a chamber of commerce or business men's association before presentation to the council. As the town lacks such organizations, the Lions club, which numbers civic improvement among its objects, might study, consult and recommend.

TECHNICAL SCHOOL ADDITION

On the ground that the province should assume a larger share of the cost of secondary education, Bowmanville town council has turned down a request from the Bowmanville high school board that the town should guarantee debentures for the erection of a shopwork and home economics wing. The Bowmanville council by resolution declared that "municipal real estate cannot justly be taxed for 85 per cent of high school costs as at present," and urges the high school board to support a resolution "being tabled at the convention of school trustees in Oshawa that the provincial government assume 50 per cent of the cost of secondary education." There is a good deal of justice in the contention that school costs fall too heavily on real estate, but the Bowmanville council seems to be biting off its nose to spite its face, for the province does offer to pay 50 per cent of the cost of building and equipping the new wing. Newmarket high school board and council concluded that now was the time to make this expenditure, that the government would give 50 per cent help to pioneering schools but would later reduce its grant. Bowmanville may get fooled.

CRITICISM OF BRITAIN

Canada's prime minister is not one to speak without careful thought, but it seems to us that he advances an undesirable principle when he states that one British Commonwealth parliament should not criticize another, and that what members of parliament shouldn't do, speakers over the radio shouldn't do. He might have gone on and added the press. To suppress criticisms of British foreign policy, and we all know that when Britain speaks she not only commits herself but also to some extent the dominions, would be to deprive Canadians of any voice in British foreign affairs. Only through the free expression of public opinion in the dominions can Britain know to what extent the rest of the British Commonwealth will support her in a crisis.

The Alternative

A logical complement of Mr. King's principle that members of the Canadian parliament shouldn't criticize the British government is that Canadians, not having raised their voices in warning criticism, should give Britain complete support in whatever action she takes or trouble she gets into. But are Canadians prepared to do that? It is better that they should warn Britain where they will not follow her, rather than that they should let her down unexpectedly in a crisis.

Inconsistency

At the present time, New Zealand, with old-fashioned ideas of honor and honesty, is opposing Britain's effort to push Haile Selassie out of the League of Nations. How will the New Zealand government be able to defend such action without criticism, open or implied, of the British parliament and radio commentators to do what he is doing himself, what New Zealand refuses to do, to give the silence of consent to unjust treatment of Ethiopia. It is just as wrong for a democracy as it is for a fascist dictatorship to walk roughshod over the little fellow. Why should over 400,000 Canadians give their lives or some of the best years of their lives, and the entire dominion mortgage its future, to protect little Belgium, and then give open approval to the conquest of Ethiopia, in flagrant disregard of League of Nations pledges? We say: Thank God for New Zealand.

RURAL ADULT EDUCATION

(Contributed by Muriel Thorpe, King)

In the rural areas of this fair country, rural adult education is perhaps one of the most vital things we lack. When one realizes how advanced Canada is along other lines, it seems a shame, yes, a crime, that the adult population in rural districts has not this advantage.

Many people have a vision of a perfect country. This means no depression or recession, as I have recently learned, no unemployment, fair wages, not such a wide spread between producer and consumer prices. This is all very beautiful and by no means impossible. But I hear someone ask, how is it possible? Some may blame the government, but I think it lies within ourselves, especially the agriculturist. After all, is not agriculture the basic industry, so why not start there?

In the first place, we must have adult education including all people who are not attending school. This education could be in the form of study groups. Such things as music, art, literature, handicrafts, and co-operatives might be study courses.

As this is meant for rural communities, I think some phase of co-operatives would make an ideal study course. Main reason for this conclusion is that the co-operative system has sound Christian principles and calls forth the best in a co-operative member, thus in an indirect way making better citizens and therefore building a finer country.

The other subjects mentioned tend to develop the higher senses. We, the rural people, need this greatly as we have not many opportunities of making contacts with the finer arts.

Once again I want to thank Pickering College at Newmarket, and its extension staff for making these things possible for us in this community. Of course, it is for us to take advantage of our opportunities.

Rural adult education tends more to make a better cultured agricultural people.

The Common Round

By Isabel Inglis Colville

"Did you ever see such eager growth?" said a friend to me, the other day. We had been looking at all the different perennials pushing, shoving, and squirming out of the earth, eager for their places in the sun. The chestnut buds are bursting like tiny bombs, and the asparagus is sending its snaky green heads up to peep at the world new-born.

Thus Mother Nature does her bit in the annual rejuvenation of our part of the world. The spring seems to be a time for mental growth too—witness, especially in rural communities, the eager small people, making their way towards our schools.

One mother told me she rather dreaded having her little daughter start, for fear she would be disappointed. She hardly knew what she expected, but at any rate, it was something pretty wonderful. But after the first two days she was just as enamored of the wonders of school as she had imagined she would be; her only trouble was that she was too excited to eat her lunch.

My own first attempts to enter the temple of knowledge, were not so happy. I was, unfortunately, for my peace of mind, a timid child and I got a fright the week before school opened.

It happened that we lived just three doors from the school, and every morning and evening, I saw a rather dreadful looking old woman, going to, and leaving the school.

She exactly fitted my fairy tale fed imagination of what a witch should be, and when one girl, who went to school, told me she was the teacher I would have, I nearly went mad with fear.

It was in vain that father and mother tried to tell me she only cleaned the school.

"Jean goes to school, and you don't," she knows," was all I would say, and I was almost too sick with fright to go. At last mother said, "I'll go with you, and if she is your teacher, I'll bring you home again."

So, knowing that I could depend on mother's word, I ventured forth, firmly clasping the maternal hand.

Going into the big sunny room, and meeting the teacher, whom I like every other child who was fortunate enough to be under her care, learned to love very dearly, for an only child, school was a marvellous place.

I've heard of children since who had fears about starting, of one kind and another. Some were wisely dealt with, as in my own case, but in some the old, stern, "you'll go because I say so," laid the foundation for a rooted hatred of school, which endured for years.

It is hard sometimes to really get inside a child's mind and find what is at the bottom of their fears and aversions, but if one can get at the root of the matter, there is nearly always a very simple solution.

Of course, in my primer days, we stuck pretty well to fundamentals, except that we happened to have a teacher who loved music, and when she saw small folk beginning to look weary, and restless, she had us stand up and sing—that helped.

But what growth there is along educational lines! This spring is seeing it broadening and spreading like a pleasant tree, under which weary little scholars may find just what suits their busy little bodies and brains.

When I hear of, and see the building and sewing and planning and decorating, the splendid books provided for young minds to feed on, I cannot help but think that the generation which is benefiting by the change will be a more contented one.

They will have an opportunity to try several things—in miniature, naturally—but it may show the bent of their inclination. They will be at home with sewing, cooking, planning the furnishing of a room, planning a house, if they ever have to, carving, drawing, painting, and last but not least, by the aid of the new books, finding out how the little people in other lands live and learn.

There seems to be growth among the educationalists as well as among those to be educated, and even if the new system is at times a bit confusing to teachers and pupils, yet it's a step in the right direction.

I fancy the suddenness with which some of the changes have been introduced, is responsible for the rather confused idea held by some as to the aim and object of all the changes.

If the growth of education in regard to public health, safety and sanity, kept step with that in the schools, there might be hope that more of those who are being trained in the schools, would be able to live safe, sane, and healthy lives, morally and physically.

We grow and we branch out, but some trees of good knowledge are of slow growth, and while, in the meantime, many trees of evil flourish and grow rapidly, the trees of good knowledge feed many young souls that only needed guidance to make their growth a benefit and comfort to their generation.

The first match of the season of the tennis club will take place Monday evening.

There was a good attendance at the town hall last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works were the chief attraction. The musical part of the program was furnished by Miss Hilliary, Miss Ratcliff, Miss Perkins, Messrs. T. H. and W. Brunton, A. N. Chantler and Downs, assisted by several Toronto persons. The local hits in the last chorus almost brought down the house with applause.

It was a very nice entertainment and added a neat little sum to the building fund of St. Paul's church.

MAY 24TH DRIVE SAFELY!

Last year the holiday traffic on our streets and highways ran up a terrible toll of seven killed and 215 injured in 145 accidents! We must not have a repetition this year.

One thoughtless move on your part may bring tragedy into your own or somebody else's home. Before you take the wheel, therefore, resolve to use the utmost care on the highway, and to observe every traffic rule.

- Drive at a safe speed at all times.
- Keep to the right hand side of the road.
- Never pass another vehicle on a hill or curve, or any point where the view is obstructed.
- Do not park on the highway.
- Signal the car behind you in plenty of time before you turn.
- Observe all road signs and signals.
- See that your car is in safe driving condition.

In the name of humanity drive safely on this, the first holiday of summer. Help make the highways safe for yourself and others.

If you drink, don't drive

The hand of the law is dealing severely with drunken drivers. The maximum penalty for driving while drunk is three months' imprisonment. If you have taken even one drink, don't drive.

come toward me.

"About 100 feet from my car he turned and came right into me," continued Mr. Horsely. "I pulled over as much as I could and was on the edge of the pavement. My car was hit on the rear left wheel, my back wheels skidded on the grass and the car shot around. When I recovered from the shock, I noticed the other car behind mine in the field. There was quite a bit of damage done to my car, but no one was hurt. We went back to find the other driver, about five minutes after the impact, but could see no one."

"I arrived at the scene of the accident about ten minutes after it occurred," testified Provincial Constable A. O. Ferguson. "I found Horsely near his car and a second car in the field on the west side. On examining the other car, I noticed it belonged to the Service Motor Sales, Toronto. As a result, I arrested Maybee two and a half hours later. He was sleeping in a tourist cabin at the Riverview Inn, about 300 yards from the accident. The car driven by Maybee travelled 366 feet from the point of contact to where it finally stopped. The accused seemed to me under the influence of liquor, so I took him to Dr. B. L. Sinclair, Bradford."

"It was about two and a half hours after the accident occurred when Maybee was brought to my office," stated Dr. Sinclair. "There was a distinct odor of liquor, his face was flushed and his eyes dilated. I gave a nervous examination and I would say he was under the influence of liquor. The muscular tests took a distinct effort and Maybee couldn't walk in a straight line. I would say at the time of the accident the accused would be unable to drive but he was beginning to sober up when I examined him."

"Would you say the accused was in a condition to drive?" questioned the magistrate.

"He might have been all right when I saw him, but he was not in a condition to drive two or three hours before that time," answered Dr. Sinclair.

"I have witnesses to prove I was working in Toronto until 10 p.m.," stated Mr. Maybee. "However, I won't deny drinking because I had two drinks of gin."

The evidence given by Constable Ferguson was corroborated by Provincial Constable Ivan Spencer.

"I am not satisfied with the evidence on the drunk driving charge," stated the magistrate. "It will be dismissed."

"The accused was convicted of reckless driving once before and he also served a term for fraud in Toronto three years ago," stated N. L. Mathews, K.C., crown attorney.

The magistrate allowed all evidence given on the first charge to stand for the other charges and the accused was sentenced on this.

The charges laid by County Constable Aubrey Fleury against Frank Bell, Fred Judge and Charles Judge, all of King township, for having liquor illegally, were adjourned for two weeks, as there will be no court session next week.

The crown attorney asked that a warrant be issued for the arrest of John Zolaturink, Toronto, who failed to appear in court. Mr. Zolaturink is charged with reckless driving and failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Convicted on charges of speeding, Culver Jones, Toronto, Jas. A. Hyde, Louis Seller, Toronto, and Sam Park, were each fined $15 and costs or ten days. Harold Galloway, Hamilton, and Ethel M. Crump, Toronto, paid fines of $5 with costs or five days for speeding.

On similar charges of speeding, P. L. Wood, Toronto, Ed. Mathews, Camp Borden, Robert Burgess, Chas. Banzbury, Midland and Chas. Battle, were each fined $10 and costs or ten days. Fines of $6 and costs or six days for speeding were imposed on Annie Power, Toronto, Herbert Cain, Newmarket, Chas. Dilse, Barrie, J. T. Imbham, Toronto, John R. Kerr, Toronto, Orange Crush Co., Toronto, William Ostos, Harry R. Sudler, G. S. Hunter, Toronto, and William Boscato.

The magistrate dismissed a charge of over-loading laid against B. F. Davis, Aurora.

Five motorists were each fined $10 with costs or ten days, for driving with faulty brakes. They were: Darius Sedore, Lloyd P. Pollock, Keswick, Alex. Wilson, Oakville, John S. Booth, and Ernest Arnold, Keswick. On an additional charge of driving without a name on his truck, Mr. Arnold was remanded for sentence. Suspended sentence was given to Kenneth Cassidy for driving with bad brakes.

For driving without an operator's license Jack Cryderman, Georgina township, was fined $10 with costs or ten days. On a charge of driving without a chauffeur's license, Lorne Paynter, a driver for Lloyd P. Pollock, Keswick, was also fined $10 with costs or ten days.

Convicted on a charge of possessing gill nets, Norman Bennett, King township, was fined $20 with costs, or 20 days, and was given two weeks to make payment. Another charge of fishing without a license was dismissed by the magistrate.

The charges were laid by Game Warden Ernest Prosser, and evidence was also given by Officer Norman Sitwell, overseer in the department of game and fisheries, and Gordon Buie, game overseer for Simcoe county.

"On April 29, very early in the morning, in company with the two other officers, we were dragging along the canal," testified Mr. Prosser. "We discovered two gill nets in the water and found a muskellunge and a pike in them. Officer Buie stationed himself at the end of one net and I went to the end of the other, while Officer Sitwell hid on the opposite bank. We also hid the boat and car and lay waiting for the owner of the nets."

"About 6 a.m. the accused came along the bank with an older man and a dog," continued Mr. Prosser. "The dog started to bark when he got near us. The older man said: 'Don't go near the game warden is there.' The accused boy went up the bank but the temptation was too strong and he came back up the bank and took up the stick the net was tied to. As he lifted the

Independent engineer, I want it understood that we are not approving of a $25,000 expenditure.

"I'd like to see Mr. Rachar use his talents to get down our peak load without spending money. One of the big users, the high school, might be able to shut off at the peak time. Mr. Robinson, another large user, might be able to shut off at that time, for an inducement."

"I agree that we shouldn't get the Hydro," said Mr. Robinson. "Mr. Rachar is a man of ability. When I hire a man I believe in letting him do his job until he proves to me that he hasn't the ability to do the job he was hired for. Then I fire him."

"The Hydro confirmed Mr. Rachar's statement that we could save 18 per cent of our power," said Dr. Boyd. "The Hydro said that we could readily lose 25 per cent."

"There is a lot in what Mr. Vale says. Twenty-five thousand dollars is a lot of money. I am not in favor of embarking on a $25,000 expenditure without taking a lot of advice. We are getting along very well. The public can vote on it at the end of the year. Now that Mr. Osborne has objected to the Hydro engineers, I would hold the project up until the public have had time to consider it."

"I am opposed to spending $500 to bring in an outside man," said Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales. "I would sooner put the money into equipment. There should be a lot of co-operation in reducing the peak load. We might save $2,000 or $3,000. Let the water and light committee go ahead and expend what is necessary. Mr. Rachar may have to go over the budget $2,000 or $3,000."

Replying to Mr. Vale, who had left the meeting, Mr. Rachar said: "How are you going to get the high school to keep off peak? One dark day in the winter is sufficient to make them use their lights. It only takes one day a month to put the peak up."

"They have stoves too, and do a lot of cooking," said Councillor Arthur Evans.

"A number of the power users say that the saving wouldn't be worth the business they would lose by shutting down," said Mr. Rachar.

"The Hydro doubted if we would get our money back," said Mayor Boyd.

"I am in favor of letting Mr. Rachar go ahead," said Dr. Dales.

MUSIC PUPILS SNATCH MANY MEDALS
Illyd Harris is very proud of the showing made by his pupils at the York Musical Festival held last week at Aurora. They won 15 gold medals, 12 silver medals, and six bronze medals, he states. Eight successful choirs won shields and a male quartet was successful, its members winning gold medals.

BOOST GRANT TO CITIZENS' BAND

Grants recommended by the finance committee, of which Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales is chairman, were accepted by the town council with only one amendment on Monday evening.

On motion of Councillor Arthur Evans, the grant to the Citizens' Band was increased from $350 to $400. A motion by Councillor Frank Robinson to increase the R.S.A. Bugle Band grant from $150 to $200 was defeated.

Grants were York County Hospital, $600; Citizens' Band, $400; R. S. A. Bugle Band, $150; Horticultural Society, $50; Newmarket night at Maple Leaf Gardens, $50; York Musical Festival, $25; library board, $1,200; fire brigade, $600.

PUPILS WILL GIVE VARIED PROGRAM

An interesting evening of entertainment will be provided on Friday night, in the town hall, when the public schools will present their annual concert, beginning at 8 p.m. The program will include singing, demonstrations in games and rhythm work, and dancing. Medal winners at the York Musical Festival will give piano, vocal and reading numbers. The choir groups will also sing.

COURT SKIPS A WEEK

The mother and daughter banquet of the Trinity United C.G.T., will be held at the church on Saturday, May 21, at 6.30 p.m. All members and their mothers are cordially invited.

JUDGING COMPETITION DATE IS NAMED

At a recent meeting of the county executive of the York County Junior Farmers, held in the agricultural representative's office at Newmarket, plans were drawn up for the annual livestock judging competition and also for their annual field day and picnic.

The judging competition which will be on the same lines as in other years, will be held at Richmond Hill on Thursday, June 2, and the young ladies who have been taking up the sewing club and "Milky Way" projects will put on a display of their work in the United church, while the young men will visit stock farms of the district.

Already some of the boys are forming coaching groups to prepare for the contest. A banquet will conclude the day's program.

As usual the mammoth picnic put on by the juniors will follow a week later when the various clubs will bring out their favorite softballers, sprinters, etc., to Musselman's Lake on June 10.

MOUNT ALBERT JUNIORS START POTATO CLUB

York Festival Is Best In East, Judge States

High Standard Receives Special Comment By Adjudicators

COMMITTEES PRAISED

Describing the York Musical Festival as "the best in eastern Canada," J. Campbell McInnes, adjudicator for senior vocal and choral classes, praised highly the standard attained by entrants, in the United church on Friday night.

Elie Spivak, adjudicator in the string and orchestral classes, took in even more territory. The festival, he stated, compared favorably not only with other Canadian festivals, but with festivals which he had attended in other countries. In his ten years of adjudicating he had seldom found a higher standard of music.

The adjudicator in the piano classes, G. D. Atkinson, also was very complimentary in his remarks. The open piano solo class for entrants under 16 years of age came in for exceptionally high praise. It was the best class he had ever heard, he said. He complimented the committee which had selected the test pieces on the choices they had made. Both the selections and the manner in which they were performed deserved praise, he felt.

Three gold medallists competed in the violin solo finals, with Joe Pach, child violinist from Toronto, taking first place. Mavis Bailey and Billy Livings, of Weston, took second and third places.

First place for the Mrs. James Whimster prizes for reading classes went to Kenneth Crow-ley, Weston, with Eddie Winter-field of Rawlinson P.S., just one mark behind, taking second award.

Andrew Clarke, Weston, win-ner of two gold medals in the junior violin classes, was given the Ada E. Campbell trophy.

Mayor Dr. C. R. Boulding pre-sented the scholarships which appear on the festival prize list for the first time this year, on Friday evening.

The Mrs. Andrew Davis schol-arship for piano went to Roy Nelson of Lansing.

Mavis Bailey of Weston won the York Musical Festival schol-arship for violin. The town of Newmarket scholarship for vocal was awarded to Alma Baker of Stouffville.

The festival would be held at approximately the same date next year, the mayor stated. He stressed the fact that it was not an Aurora festival, but as its name implied, a festival for all of York county. He thanked the committees for their work in making the festival a success and expressed gratitude to the various municipalities who had been so generous with shields and donations.

Europe, and which was actually filmed in Europe, the Holy Land, and Egypt, at a tremendous cost.

A complete and very appro-priate musical score will be played throughout the entire film, on special sound equipment, reproducing some of the world's choicest and most exquisite or-chestral, organ, and choral music; by famous composers, blending in with the magnificent scenes, which portray, in authentic and historic fashion, the life, cruci-fixture, and resurrection of Jesus.

The film was produced in Eu-rope, Palestine, and Egypt, and has won the profound admiration and approval of more than 2,000 of the largest churches in the United States and Canada, hav-ing been exhibited to more than 1,000,000 people, during the past two years, many times to over-flowing audiences.

OSBORNE CLARIFIES COUNCIL RULING

Laying a six-inch main on Charles St. and installing a hydrant was approved by the town council on Monday even-ing.

Stating that he was under the impression that the council had refused to approve laying a water main on Park Ave., Coun-cillor Wm. Dixon raised the question discussed at the pre-vious meeting.

According to Councillor W. W. Osborne, the council refused to pay the cost of digging and re-filling a trench outside the town, the piping to be paid for by the house-owners, and had also re-fused to approve laying a six-inch main, as recommended by his committee, to the town limits. But Mr. Osborne said the council had approved laying a one-inch pipe to the town limits. To make this clear, the council passed a motion to this effect.

Councillor Arthur Evans ex-

ABOUT TOWN

WORDS WITHOUT MUSIC

Drenched in music and sunk in sound, we sat in the church while all around spectators gaped and judges frowned, children grinned and McInnes frowned.

We wondered what all the noise was for—will somebody kindly close that door—and we asked who the blank was keeping the score... if they don't get medals, do they get sore?

We saw the children one by one, each with his separate place in the sun, sing as if it were all in fun, then bow and smile when his song was done.

We asked a man, "What's the good of it all?"—but we asked a man who was far too tall—he banged our head against the wall, threw us out of the fine church hall, and said, "Young man, you've too much gall.... This is the musical festival!"

EAST GWILLIMBURY

A by-law to prohibit the run-ning of dogs at large in the vil-lage of Mount Albert from May 1 to October 1 of each year was passed at the regular meeting of East Gwillimbury township council in Sharon hall on May 7, with all members present.

Greig and George Harrison were ap-pointed valuers to value cer-tain lands being expropriated by the council and described in the expropriation by-laws. NEWMARKET

VETERANS HOLD OLD-TIME BEE

Reminiscence of pioneer days when barn-raising, logging and quilting-bees were both enjoyable and profitable functions, a number of Newmarket veterans put their "shoulders to the wheel," recently, and put in a cellar for a local veteran's widow.

The boys, working under Pres. Alf "Mickey" Smith, all enjoyed the undertaking and suffered only one casualty. Comrade Bill White fell over a shell-box and injured his shoulder, forcing him to confine his activities to playing the piano. So Bill kept the boys in good spirits with "whistle while you work," and other appropriate tunes.

As with the bees of old labor was accomplished, a large labor bill was saved, and everyone seemed "happy about the whole thing."

pressed disapproval of encour-aging people to live outside the town.

"We might as well sell the water, we have to pay for the well," said Deputy-Reeve Joseph Vale.

"These people would be glad to be taken into the corporation," said Reeve Dr. L. W. Daley.

REUNION OF OLD BOYS PLANNED NEXT WEEK

What promises to be one of the brightest days in Aurora's jubilee year is being planned for May 27. It will take the form of an "old boys" reunion banquet and evening of entertain-ment, sponsored by the Aurora Service Club.

John F. Clark, known through-out Canada, for his lectures on horticulture, has been obtained by the club for a lecture in Mechanics' Hall on Friday even-ing of next week. The lecture will begin at 8.15 p.m.

The scene of the banquet, which begins at 6.15 p.m., will be the new Dawson's Grill, and will afford those attending a splendid chance to renew old acquaintanceships. Following the dinner a civic welcome will be given by the mayor and council at Mechanics' Hall, after which Mr. Clark will give an illustrated lecture on civic improvement. The evening promises to be entertaining and instructive and should be well supported by the public.

Says Town Got Milk From Diseased Herds

obligation to give the herds a careful inspection, to see that the milk is well pasteurized and that it is delivered to the homes safe to use.

"Though I have been receiving monthly reports of the inspection of the farmers' premises, there has never been one report that showed that any cow or herd which had been inspected had tuberculosis, contagious abortion, a diseased udder, or other disease. The only mention of disease was one cow that was affected with lump jaw, but questions 11 and 12 on the milk form, 'Are the cattle healthy and if not healthy, name the disease with which the cattle are affect-ed,' have invariably been to say there has been no disease in any of the cattle of all the farmers' Mair started his work as milk inspector something over two years ago.

"Is it not time that the board of health made a move to have someone appointed to this most important position who knows more about the work and will give the board the information they are supposed to get? Personally I know of milk from cattle that were affected with contagious abortion coming into the town dairies and the milk inspector working at another job at the same time, but getting paid for inspecting cattle to be sure the people were not getting milk from diseased herds. In other words, we must have a man qualified to make a medical inspection of the herds, and time and opportunity to do it.

"The veterinary surgeon of today receives a course in milk hygiene which gives him a training and a knowledge in sanitary science as it relates to the production of clean whole-some dairy products. The uni-versal pasteurization of milk, the legislation for which was brought down at the last meeting of parliament, is evidence of pub-lic opinion on such matters. The science of health and disease in man and animals requires the oversight of those specially trained in the work, men who are graduates from medical col-leges, with special additional training at the school of hygiene at Toronto university, men who are graduates from veterinary colleges, and with special train-ing in matters pertaining to pure foods and the infectious diseases of animals as carried to humans through the ingestion of milk.

"The constant work of the ever faithful milk inspector is to wage war on the many kinds of bac-teria that get in their deleterious work on the human race all the way from the cradle to the grave.

"Archie Mair claims that he was unfairly dismissed from the position of milk inspector. I will admit that there had never been much controversy between the inspector and the board or even between Archie and myself. When I spoke to him about doing his inspections often after dark, he always tried to tell me that night time was the better time, and would not offer to do what I wanted him to do, in spite of the fact that the town milk by-law specifically states he is to be under the jurisdiction and con-trol of the medical officer of health and is to make his in-spections in such a way as shall be directed by the medical officer of health.

"As to the proper time to inspect the farmers' premises, I took the matter up with Dr. Phair, who is deputy-minister of health, and Dr. Berry, who is chief of the division of sanitary engineering, also with Mr. Tyler, who is doing the inspection of dairies in York county for the department of health, and they all three said that the best time was in daylight. After one has worked all day on a regular job, he is not in the best condition to undertake such important work as the inspection of stables, cat-tle, and dairy utensils.

"During 1937 and long before, one man within the corporation limits had been selling his milk unpasteurized to people in town, and my first intimation of this was when the inspector from the department of health brought me a report of his inspection. The work of finding people in town or out of town breaking the town milk by-law should belong to the inspector, but as his time is so much taken with his regular job, important matters of this kind are going wrong every day.

"Several milkers have owned up to the present inspector that they do not wash their hands before milking (Sec. 11).

"One place which has been regularly inspected by the late inspector is found to have the gutter behind the cows filled with liquid manure, and no drainage from it. With such un-sanitary arrangements, it is impossible to produce clean milk.

"Another place is reported by the new inspector as having very dirty, watery milk in the milk vat for cooling purposes, show-ing that the water has not been changed for some long time.

"Another place under my own observation, there were fowl in the same part of the stable with the milk cows. As the doors were all shut, I was compelled to believe that they were being housed there contrary to section 18.

"Another stable was reported by Archie Mair as having been regularly white-washed when, as a matter of fact, it had never been white-washed since it was built, and it had been built for a number of years.

"According to the by-law, (Sec. 12), all parts of the pas-teurizer are to be dismantled after use, and all parts of the same to be washed and sterilized before being used again. While inspecting one of the dairies, I was informed that they took the piping down every couple of days, and yet the reports of this dairy are certified to as having been taken down every day.

"Even the reports of the inspection of the town dairies by the representative of the depart-ment of health, where from 15 to 18 recommendations for alter-ations or improvements for each of the dairies have been made, did not change the answers to the questions of the weekly re-port on these dairies. The same defects in the dairies passed unnoticed by the former inspec-tor.

"And least of all reasons for asking and recommending the change of inspector was any antipathy toward Archie because he would not discontinue a ship-per that I asked him to. Accord-ing to the town milk by-law the inspector is under the jurisdic-tion and control of the M.O.H. and is to make his inspections according to his directions. No other arrangement could be sat-isfactory.

"While I regret having to go into this matter in detail, I sin-cerely hope you are satisfied that the board of health, or a major-ity of the board, were quite jus-tified in asking for a change of the inspector and that the same is in the best interests of the public health. It was not from any personal motive, but done after careful consideration and discussion by the board. The position of the medical health officer is a killer on business, but with the backing of the veter-arian chairman, J. R. Y. Brough-ton, there is nothing to regret in the matter."

Following a long illness, Samuel Watson Cook, of Aurora, died in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on Friday morning. He was in his 67th year. Mr. Cook was born in King township, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook, who came to this country from Yorkshire, England.

He was buried in Kettleby cemetery, following services at the Aurora Baptist church at which the pastor, Rev. A. R. Park, officiated.

Mr. Cook is survived by his wife, formerly Sarah Ellis, of Aurora, and six daughters, Mrs. L. R. Borden, (Pearl), Mrs. J. Walker, (Mary), and Margaret Cook, (Lillian), and Jean Cook, of Toronto, and Mrs. Kenneth Bain, (Beatrice), of Newmarket; and three sons, Harry, Frank and James, of Aurora. There are 14 grandchildren.

RESIDENT OF WHITCHURCH C. PETCH DIES, AGED 60

A resident of Whitchurch township for 25 years, C. W. Petch died April 26, the result of an accident, near Charlton. The team of horses which he was driving, got out of control and he was thrown to the ground, the wagon passing over his body.

Charles Wesley Petch was the son of the late Reuben Petch. He was born in St. Vincent, and was in his 60th year. He left Stouff-ville district four years ago, and had been doing pioneer evangel-istic work in the north. For 42 years he had been a member of the Church of Christ, having preached in many evangelist churches in Ontario and the western provinces.

He is survived by his wife, the former Ada Elford, whom he married in 1899, two sons, Don-ald, Charlton; Phillip, Menford; and three daughters, Mrs. Rey-nold Pratt, Stayner; Mrs. Alex. Three Arrests Made In Break-In Attempt

Smart Police Work Foils Trio Suspected Of Burglary

CONSTABLES GET CREDIT

Three men are charged with entering Cousin's Dairy at 1 a.m. Monday, as a result of super-sleuthing by the local constables.

Chief of Police Fisher Dunham, keeping his nightly vigil over Yonge St., noticed one man standing outside the dairy and another standing beside the town hall. Connecting them in his mind with a strange car parked nearby, the chief ducked out of sight to see what would happen.

The men immediately started a search to make sure the chief was out of the way and Mr. Dunham took this as his cue to summon County Constable Aubrey Fleury to meet him at a place where the watchers would not see them.

He saw a car drive in behind the dairy and he jumped into the county constable's car. They met the suspects, in their car, head on in the centre of Yonge St. Aubrey Fleury, at the wheel, prevented the other car from getting away, while Fisher Dunham, after firing one shot at the windshield, jumped out and held two of the men at the point of his gun while the county constable put the handcuffs on them.

The third man, who had been driving the car, escaped down a lane.

Figuring that it was no use playing hide-and-seek in the darkness, the constables gave the man time to get clear, and as

HOSPITAL WORKER TO ADDRESS INSTITUTE

The Aurora branch of the Wo-men's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Gralner, Mark St., on Thursday of next week. Miss M. E. Wilkinson, superintendent of Queen Mary Hospital, Weston, has been invited to speak.

they hoped, on his way to Tor-onto.

About 5 a.m., they started in the car toward Toronto and as they neared Thornhill, saw what they believed to be the missing man. Constable Fleury was in plain clothes and he got out of the car while it was still in motion. Throwing his hat into the ditch, he proceeded to give an imitation of a hitch-hiker trying to get a ride from the passing trucks.

His imitation was so good that he was able to walk right up to the man and arrest him.

Archie Cousins, when inter-viewed, was full of praise for the fine work of the two con-stables. "They did a very smart piece of work," he stated.

The men arrested were Frank Gordon, of Sudbury, and George Chamberlain and Douglas Gordon of Toronto. They were charged with theft of two cars as well as for their work at the dairy. They are believed to have switched license plates on the cars before driving to Aurora.

Though the men had broken open two doors and a cellar open-ing to ensure a get-away, they had not had time to do much damage inside the dairy itself.

Local Softballers To Play Richmond Hill On Monday

Aurorans Have Strong Team Strengthened By Newcomers

With at least five new players on their line-up, members of the local baseball club have high hopes for group honors this summer. Eddie Burke, Marvin Hunter, "Hoot" Gibson and Jim Potter are four of the newcomers counted on to bolster the strength of the Aurora team.

The fifth man is "Mr. X" and his name will be known when and if he steps into the pitcher's box on Monday night to take part in the Aurorans' opening game, when they take on Richmond Hill in the Aurora park.

Other members of the team, prominent in last year's ball games, are "Ninny" Heaney, Floyd Yakes, Herbert McKenzie, Charles Milne, "Nuggins" Shore, Len Shropshire, John Helmsky, "Wiff" White, and Mike, the catcher.

The team is under the capable management of Stuart Patrick, whose sporting interests have switched from hockey to baseball, for the summer months, at least.

A meeting of group executives was held at the home of L. Sparks, convenor, on Friday night, to draw up a schedule. The four teams in the group are Aurora, Newmarket, Schenbry and Richmond Hill. They will play a double schedule. Monday night is the Aurorans' first game here, and they will play against Richmond Hill. They play in Newmarket next Thursday.

The diamond in the Aurora park has been put in first-class shape, and it is hoped to have new netting in place for the opening game on Monday.

WILL DISCONTINUE PAPER COLLECTIONS

The regular devotional and business meeting of St. Paul's W.A. was held last Thursday in the chapel. The June meeting will be held the first Thursday, June 2, instead of the usual second Thursday, as the branch attends the deacony convention held this year at Aurora on June 9.

The ladies wish to inform their many friends who so kindly have saved their wastepaper and discarded magazines for the col-lections twice a year, that con-sidering the low price paid for waste paper, they are discontin-uing collecting till further notice.

The June meeting, at the in-itation of Mrs. Patstone, the president, will be held on the rectory lawn, weather permit-ting.

A GRAND BIG CAR in everything but price!

The De Luxe Ford V-8 looks big and is big — in performance and value.

The De Luxe was designed for a definite group of customers — folks who liked the basic Ford features, but wanted a little more size and style. We've put in everything they asked for.

The De Luxe is richly appointed, inside and out. Closed sedans have longer bodies and larger luggage space. The V-8 engine under the hood develops 85 smooth-flowing horse-power and gives 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gas, as owners report. In comfort, performance and pride of ownership, the De Luxe Ford sets a new high for the low-price field.

De Luxe prices are especially reasonable when you realize that they include a great deal of equipment for which you are often asked to pay extra. . . . The newly styled Standard Ford V-8 is even lower priced. Because both cars are Later he moved away, going west. He visited his friends in King in recent years, and remained with his brother, Thomas, in Toronto. He was well-known through the township, where the large family of the Gillies' spent their lives.

Have the readers gathered and eaten their share of morsels this season? Morsels as they are called or morchella, as known by their class name, are the earliest of the fungi, and come in May and June.

They are brown, often of inverted cone shape, deeply honey-combed, but often like a brown sponge that has happily burst in all directions. They are likely to be found under pine trees. Other varieties are found in other woods. Soak in salted water to remove any lurking insect and fry, and eat!!!

(Advertisement) LAY AWAKE IN AGONY WITH NEURITIS

Kruschen Salts Brought Lasting Relief

Ordinary headaches are bad enough, but they are as nothing compared to the awful pains of neuritis in the head, says this woman. Read how Kruschen completely banished the pain—

"I had neuritis in the head and right arm. I suffered untold agony with my head, and I dare not think what might have happened had it continued. Everybody knows what a headache is like, but it is as nothing compared with the awful pain of neuritis in the head. I spent sleepless nights tossing with pain. I began taking Kruschen Salts, and after some months of the treatment I have effected lasting relief."—(Mrs.) L. M.

Neuritis, like rheumatism and sciatica, frequently has its roots in intestinal stasis (delay)—the unexpended accumulation in the system of harmful waste matter, which leads to the formation of excess uric acid.

Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts have the power of dissolving uric acid crystals. Other ingredients of Kruschen assist Nature to expel these dissolved crystals through the natural channels.

Several members of Glenville W.A. attended the 17th semi-annual meeting of the Toronto Centre Presbytery at Newmarket on Wednesday.

"I don't fool with pests"

I wish I didn't have to spend money to keep away blight and insects from my potato crop - but I do. Since I have to buy and apply protective dust, I buy the most effective, and dust thoroughly.

I've found by experience that Copotex gives great satisfaction. It holds the killing power for a long time, saving dusting time. Copotex is the copper-limo dust, with Niagara Calcium Arsenate, that I find entirely reliable.

Thorough dusting is another crop saver. My NIAGARA DRI-FOG DUSTER gets under and over the foliage every time.

A church congregation was giving a reception to a former pastor and his wife. The present pastor in the receiving line greeted his predecessor heartily. "Ah, how pleasant to see you again," he said. "And is this your most charming wife?" The other minister fixed his host with an accusing stare. "This," he said reprovingly, "is my only wife."

YOUNG CHIPS HEARS OF A DOUBLE TRAGEDY

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB
"Why, hello, Young Chips," said Woody Woodpecker. "I haven't seen you lately. Where have you been for the last two or three weeks?"

"Merry and I have been looking after our eggs, of course," replied Young Chips. "We expect them to hatch out almost any time now. I've been very busy, haven't you?"

"I am now, but we didn't start nesting until last week, so we are two or three weeks behind you Chickadees," said Woody. "But even at that, we're ahead of our friends, the Nuthatches. Imagine! They don't nest until the fourth week in May."

"Well, our families will be that much older and wiser than theirs, by the time the summer comes," said Young Chips. "They will if they grow up," said Woody darkly.

"Why do you say that?" asked Young Chips.

"My wife has begun to worry already that something will happen to the young ones," said Woody. "That terrible Robin affair depressed her, I guess."

"What affair?" exclaimed Young Chips. "I certainly didn't hear a thing about it."

"Why, didn't you know?" asked Woody in amazement. "Rob Robin's brother lost his wife and one of his children, in the same accident."

"How perfectly awful," gasped Chips. "How could a thing like that occur?"

"Well," explained Woody. "As I understand it, Mrs. Robin left the nest for a minute and one of the children fell out to the ground below, but was not hurt. However, a big cat pounced on it, just as Mrs. Robin got back. She started to fight the cat in an effort to save her young one, and was killed herself. And the pathetic thing was that the cat had already killed the young one. And so Mr. Robin is left with two other motherless children."

"Why, that's terrible," shuddered Young Chips. "I wish you hadn't told me about it."

"Don't think about it then," advised Woody. "Doesn't Bob Bobolink sound happy, singing away, over on the far side of this field. He's one of the happiest people I know. You'd think he hadn't a care in the world."

"He probably hasn't a care," said Chips. "If he hasn't started to nest yet, why should he have any worries. It's after you set up housekeeping and start raising a family that the anxiety begins."

"I hear someone else that sounds happy," said Woody. "It's that Baltimore Oriole. He's been here for over two weeks, and I've been hearing that loud clear warble of his ever since, it seems."

"There are certainly lots of birds around now, all right," said Young Chips. "If one just had time to visit all of them, it would be a very sociable time of year. The Scarlet Tanagers ought to be here now. Have you seen any of them yet?"

"No, I haven't," said Woody. "But I'm watching for them. I've seen a great many different kinds of Warblers. I was talking to Kitty Catbird this morning. The Catbirds are just finishing up their nest. I suppose you have seen her, too."

"As a matter of fact, I don't get on too well with her," admitted Young Chips. "I've nothing against the Catbirds as a family, but I had an unfortunate run-in with Kitty in my early youth and we have never felt quite the same friendship toward each other since. That is, I haven't. Maybe she has forgotten all about it, now."

"She probably has," said Woody. "I've always liked Kitty. I know a good many birds think that she enjoys 'meowing' just because she so often frightens other birds, who think she is a cat, but I think that's very unfair to Kitty. She's naturally shy and means no harm to anyone. It's just an unfortunate accident that her voice resembles a cat's."

"I hope you're right," muttered Young Chips. "Well, I must go now, and get back to Merry. I've been standing here chatting far too long as it is. I'll be letting you know the good news when our eggs are hatched out."

Keswick

Rev. C. E. Fockler was in charge of both services on Sunday, May 15, at the United church, giving a very fine address each time. Taking his morning text from St. Matthew 14:30, Mr. Fockler stated that to many faith was a fine thing, when everything was running smoothly, but became something different when something was wrong.

Mr. Hart, a recent arrival in Keswick, sang very splendidly, "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

In the evening, Mr. Fockler centred his address around Psalm 23.

Announcement is made of special services next Sunday, when the 20th anniversary of the conversion of John Wesley will be celebrated. The special program will be followed at the morning service and in the evening.

Mrs. Perry Finch presided over the well attended, interesting meeting of the W.M.S., which was held on Thursday, May 12, at Mrs. Jud Cole's home, at Roche's Point, which was beautifully bright and cheerful with its many bowls of early flowers.

Those assisting Mrs. Finch were Mrs. Vaughan, Mrs. Fockler, Mrs. Erwin Finch and Mrs. Frank Marriott, who led in prayers and scripture reading. Mrs. Bernard Rye read the devotional leaflet, and joined Mrs. Kenneth McKinnon and Mrs. Harold Wilkinson in very able reviewing a chapter of the

Mrs. Whipple sang most beautifully a very lovely solo, which was greatly enjoyed and also spoke of her son's work in the mission field, where he and his wife, with their twin babies, are doing good work. Mrs. Hilborn, secretary of the temperance department, gave a short but appropriate talk, and Mrs. McGerny, supply secretary, reported that the bale would be packed the first week in June.

During the business period, the date of the next meeting was set for Wednesday, June 8. Others assisting were Mrs. Pedlar and Mrs. W. E. Morton, Miss Joy Marritt being pianist. A very lovely letter was read from Mrs. Washington Finch, a member who, due to a long time of illness, has been prevented from attending, and who along with several other most faithful members, also unable to attend, are being greatly missed.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess served a most delicious lunch, being assisted by several of those present, including Mrs. Hilborn, Mrs. Drury, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Frank Marritt, Mrs. Ethan Morton and Miss Helen Smith.

On behalf of those present, the president, Mrs. Vail, extended a vote of sincere appreciation to Mrs. Cole for her gracious hospitality.

This May meeting of the W.M.S. at Mrs. Cole's has become an eagerly anticipated annual event.
